

August 30, 2026

THE GOD WE SERVE

Pastor: Jesse Bradley Series: Let Us Pray Scripture: Psalm 145:1-21

READ PSALM 145

David pens a grand doxology with overflowing praise. David has pure excitement about who God is. David loves to talk with God and talk about God. David talks with God about people and talks with people about God. There are many verses in this Psalm you can meditate on or memorize. If someone asked you about God, you could read this Psalm as a great starting point.

The character of God is flawless and inspiring.

God is holy, trustworthy, gracious, compassionate, just, and merciful. God's kingdom is unstoppable, universal, and personal. Jesus is the same yesterday, today, and forever. God always loves us, is our burden-bearer, close to the brokenhearted, and a generous provider. We run out of words to describe His greatness because He is eternal. We will praise Him for eternity and be with Him forever.

We have been adopted into God's family through Jesus.

One generation tells the next generation about our glorious Savior. Worship God with all your mind, heart, and soul.

REFLECTION QUESTIONS

1. Who do you teach about God, and what do you say? (Psalm 145:1-5)
2. What do you celebrate the most in life? (Psalm 145:6-10)
3. How can you lead more people to Jesus? (Psalm 145:11-13)
4. What do you appreciate about God's character? (Psalm 145:14-17)
5. What truth in these verses encourages you? (Psalm 145:18-21)
6. Who can you share this Scripture with during the upcoming week?

SERMON NOTES

God's greatness is beyond description, and He alone will be praised forever.

God's wonderful works will be told from generation to generation.

God's kingdom is glorious, unstoppable, and king Jesus is worthy.

God is near and lifts up all who call on Him in truth.