Ruth's Journey: More Love

When tragedy strikes, God is still our refuge and strength. God will never leave us or forsake us. God keeps His covenant and fulfills all of His promises.

God does great works of grace in the most difficult times. God is a rock that is stronger than us. God's power is evident in our weakness.

Ruth clings to God when her husband dies. Ruth commits to serving while she is still grieving. Ruth demonstrates loyal love to Naomi and unselfishly provides for her. God's love is extended through Ruth.

We are designed to receive and give the hope of Jesus.
