

Reflection on Titus 1:5-9

Romans 12:2. Do not be conformed to this world, but be transformed by the renewal of your mind, that by testing you may discern what is the will of God, what is good and acceptable and perfect.

Based on our study in Titus ... What can you commit to God asking for renewal and transformation?

What can you commit to pray for our pastor, our elders, your husband (or future husband or dad)?

Phil 4:8. "Finally, brethren, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is right, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is of good repute, if there is an excellence and if anything worthy of praise, let your mind dwell on these things."

What is not true, or honorable, or right, or pure, or lovely, or of good repute in your life? Confess that to God. Accept His forgiveness. Ask for Him to transform your mind that you may discern what is the will of God, what is good and acceptable and perfect.

What is worthy of praise?
