

Grace Baptist Church is located in beautiful Charlottetown, PEI on the east coast of Canada. Our church has a vibrant and growing multi-generational and culturally diverse family. Its mission as a Bible Centered ministry is to glorify and worship God through the salvation of sinners and discipling, edifying, and equipping of God’s people. A heart for authentic worship and passion for the local church characterize this group of believers.

Grace Baptist Church is community focused and has multiple ministries for all age groups including child and youth ministry, community groups, and senior’s ministry. The church is committed to Christian education and has operated Grace Christian School for the past four decades.

Grace Baptist Church is a member of the Fellowship of Evangelical Churches of Canada as well as The Gospel Coalition Atlantic Canada and The Gospel Coalition Canada.
