

MEN'S FORUM

What is a 'Jesus nut'? It is the huge bolt that holds the main helicopter blades to the rotor shaft. It is a slang term first coined by US soldiers in Vietnam to communicate that if this huge bolt were to ever fail, the helicopter would crash and the crew's only hope would be to pray to Jesus! These soldiers understood that they were at war for their future, faith, family and freedom. And many believed that Jesus was the only strong, sure, solid component that would keep their lives flying without falling apart and crashing. They realized that the real 'nut' is the man who thinks he can keep flying through life without God being central to his life and holding it all together!

HOLDING THINGS TOGETHER

Men, we are also at war for our faith, future and families. Each week men from all over the city gather to better understand how being vitally connected to Christ gives them the peace, purpose, power and passion to hold life together in a world that seems to be falling apart. They are discovering a resilient courage and deep hope as God builds them to be the men, husbands, fathers and businessmen they are called to be. Forums are designed for men at the 101 level who may not understand much about the Bible, aren't very 'religious' and have real questions (i.e. priorities, work, marriage, family, success, failure, life, death, God, truth, faith, decisions, worry, hope, stress temptation, adversity, etc). Come and see the difference 59 minutes can make.

FORUMS ARE FOR MEN...

- Who want powerful and practical truth that works in order to meet the pressing demands of life.
- Who seek a winsome, safe environment where their concerns are addressed and questions answered.
- Who enjoy the encouragement of other men who struggle with the same headaches, hassles and issues.
