The 7th inning stretch - Parenting Adult Children

Have you ever walked a tightrope? If not, your kids haven't reached adult status. If they have, then you know the feeling of lightly tapping around what to say and what not to say, and blowing it time and again. In this session, we'll talk about giving our kids space to "adult" while gently walking beside them as friends, counselors and trusted advisors.

Elizabeth Oates

Elizabeth Oates serves as the Minister of Discipleship for Women & Marriage at First Woodway Baptist Church but her true joy comes from raising her five loud, rowdy, all very different children alongside her husband, Brandon.

"Lonely No More." Women everywhere are searching for their identity, but often we don't even know what true identity in Christ means. In this session you'll find out that finding our identity in Christ means we belong . . . we belong to Him and we belong to a family of believers. If you are suffering from a season of loneliness or trying to find your people, this is the session for you!

Becky Leach

The Pivot: Believing God When You Really, Really, Don't Want To Have you ever doubted if God is actually good? Have you ever looked at the situation in front of you and asked the Lord, "How could you let this happen?" Me too. In this session, you will learn how to believe God's promises when it feels like your world is falling apart, that it's possible to be at peace when your heart is hurting, and how to honestly come to the Lord when you feel forgotten.
