

SERMON DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

Week of November 16, 2025

Psalm 139

[1] O LORD, you have searched me and known me! [2] You know when I sit down and when I rise up; you discern my thoughts from afar. [3] You search out my path and my lying down and are acquainted with all my ways. [4] Even before a word is on my tongue, behold, O LORD, you know it altogether. [5] You hem me in, behind and before, and lay your hand upon me. [6] Such knowledge is too wonderful for me; it is high; I cannot attain it. [7] Where shall I go from your Spirit? Or where shall I flee from your presence? [8] If I ascend to heaven, you are there! If I make my bed in Sheol, you are there! [9] If I take the wings of the morning and dwell in the uttermost parts of the sea, [10] even there your hand shall lead me, and your right hand shall hold me. [11] If I say, "Surely the darkness shall cover me, and the light about me be night," [12] even the darkness is not dark to you; the night is bright as the day, for darkness is as light with you. [13] For you formed my inward parts; you knitted me together in my mother's womb. [14] I praise you, for I am fearfully and wonderfully made. Wonderful are your works; my soul knows it very well. [15] My frame was not hidden from you, when I was being made in secret, intricately woven in the depths of the earth. [16] Your eyes saw my unformed substance; in your book were written, every one of them, the days that were formed for me, when as yet there was none of them. [17] How precious to me are your thoughts, O God! How vast is the sum of them! [18] If I would count them, they are more than the sand. I awake, and I am still with you. [19] Oh that you would slay the wicked, O God! O men of blood, depart from me! [20] They speak against you with malicious intent; your enemies take your name in vain. [21] Do I not hate those who hate you, O LORD? And do I not loathe those who rise up against you? [22] I hate them with complete hatred; I count them my enemies. [23] Search me, O God, and know my heart! Try me and know my thoughts! [24] And see if there be any grievous way in me, and lead me in the way everlasting!

1. How would it make you feel if you found out that your co-worker, your boss, your neighbor, or even a close relative secretly knew everything about you - every private moment, your every thought, motivation, sin, and desire - everything about your life laid bare before this person?
2. From a Christian's perspective, why should God's omnipresence be comforting and reassuring? Should His presence bring us comfort even when we're in sin? Why or why not?
3. Knowing that God formed your inward parts, knitted you together in your mother's womb, and that you are fearfully and wonderfully made, how should we view our life and relationship with God?
4. Why do people naturally gravitate toward individualism and self-centered me-first attitudes and desires? How does belief in a Creator God help us battle against these selfish egocentric ways of thinking?
5. When we sin, why is our first response to run from God and hide? When we sin, why does the gospel urge us to run to God? What does running to God practically look like?
6. Why is it important for us to embrace the idea of God being an invasive and inescapable God? How does knowing and believing that God knows you, is with you and created you, help Christians to live lives of humility, repentance, confidence, peace and joy?