"The Harvest is plentiful, but the laborers are few.
Therefore pray to the Lord of the harvest to send out laborers into His harvest." Luke 10:2

Welcome!

For God's glory and by His grace, Harvest Fellowship exists to make disciples of Jesus Christ who are progressively growing in their love of God, their love of people, and their commitment to help others grow as disciples.

God Calls Us

Call To Worship — Psalm 118:26-29

Blessed is he who comes in the name of the LORD! We bless you from the house of the LORD. The LORD is God, and he has made his light to shine upon us. Bind the festal sacrifice with cords, up to the horns of the altar! You are my God, and I will give thanks to you; you are my God; I will extol you. Oh give thanks to the LORD, for he is good; for his steadfast love endures forever!

Prayer of Invocation

King of Kings

Words & music by Brooke Ligertwood, Jason Ingram and Scott Ligertwood

In the darkness we were waiting
Without hope, without light
'Til from Heaven You came running
There was mercy in Your eyes
To fulfill the law and prophets
To a virgin came the word
From a throne of endless glory
To a cradle in the dirt

Praise the Father, praise the Son
Praise the Spirit, three in one
God of glory, Majesty
Praise forever to the King of Kings

To reveal the kingdom coming
And to reconcile the lost
To redeem the whole creation
You did not despise the cross
For even in your suffering
You saw to the other side
Knowing this was our salvation
Jesus for our sake you died

And the morning that You rose
All of Heaven held its breath
'Til that stone was moved for good
For the Lamb had conquered death
And the dead rose from their tombs
And the angels stood in awe
For the souls of all who'd come
To the Father are restored

And the church of Christ was born
Then the Spirit lit the flame
Now this gospel truth of old
Shall not kneel, shall not faint
By His blood and in His name
In His freedom I am free
For the love of Jesus Christ
Who has resurrected me

Crown Him With Many Crowns

Words by Matthew Bridges, 1851; Music by George J. Elvey, 1868

Crown Him with many crowns, the Lamb upon His throne;
Hark! How the heav'nly anthem drowns all music but its own:
Awake, my soul, and sing of Him who died for thee
And hail Him as thy matchless King through all eternity.

Crown Him the Lord of love; behold His hands and side,
Rich wounds, yet visible above, in beauty glorified:
No angel in the sky can fully bear that sight
But downward bends His burning eye at mysteries so bright.

Crown Him the Lord of Life, who triumphed o'er the grave;
Who rose victorious to the strife, for those He came to save.
His glories now we sing, who died and rose on high,
Who died eternal life to bring, and lives that death may die.

Crown Him the Lord of years, the Potentate of time;
Creator of the rolling spheres, ineffably sublime:
All hail, Redeemer, hail! For Thou hast died for me,
Thy praise shall never, never fail throughout eternity.

God Renews Us

Scripture Reading: Zechariah 9:9-17 (p. 797)

⁹ Rejoice greatly, O daughter of Zion! Shout aloud, O daughter of Jerusalem! Behold, your king is coming to you; righteous and having salvation is he, humble and mounted on a donkey, on a colt, the foal of a donkey.

¹⁰ I will cut off the chariot from Ephraim and the war horse from Jerusalem; and the battle bow shall be cut off, and he shall speak peace to the nations; his rule shall be from sea to sea, and from the River to the ends of the earth.

¹¹ As for you also, because of the blood of my covenant with you, I will set your prisoners free from the waterless pit.

¹² Return to your stronghold, O prisoners of hope; today I declare that I will restore to you double. ¹³ For I have bent Judah as my bow; I have made Ephraim its arrow. I will stir up your sons, O Zion, against your sons, O Greece, and wield you like a warrior's sword.

¹⁴ Then the Lord will appear over them, and his arrow will go forth like lightning; the Lord God will sound the trumpet and will march forth in the whirlwinds of the south. ¹⁵ The Lord of hosts will protect them, and they shall devour, and tread down the sling stones, and they shall drink and roar as if drunk with wine, and be full like a bowl, drenched like the corners of the altar. ¹⁶ On that day the Lord their God will save them, as the flock of his people; for like the jewels of a crown they shall shine on his land. ¹⁷ For how great is his goodness, and how great his beauty! Grain shall make the young men flourish, and new wine the young women.

Behold The Lamb

Words & music by Mark Altrogge

Behold the Lamb, silent before His accusers
As thorns are pressed into His brow.
They lift Him up, oh see the spikes that hold Him,
Redeeming blood flows down.
But look again, the cross stands empty now
And He is risen.

Behold the Lamb, see Him crowned with glory.
Behold the Lamb, cast your crowns before Him
Crying, 'Holy, holy is the Lamb.'

Behold the Lamb, carrying all our transgressions,
He freely takes our place;
Endures the lash, the mocking and the laughter
Of those He dies to save.
But look again, the cross stands empty now, and He is risen.

God Speaks To Us

“Who is This?”
Matthew 21:1-11 (p. 559)
Barry Noll

¹ Now when they drew near to Jerusalem and came to Bethphage, to the Mount of Olives, then Jesus sent two disciples, ² saying to them, “Go into the village in front of you, and immediately you will find a donkey tied, and a colt with her. Untie them and bring them to me. ³ If anyone says anything to you, you shall say, ‘The Lord needs them,’ and he will send them at once.” ⁴ This took place to fulfill what was spoken by the prophet, saying, ⁵ “Say to the daughter of Zion, ‘Behold, your king is coming to you, humble, and mounted on a donkey, on a colt, the foal of a beast of burden.’”

⁶ The disciples went and did as Jesus had directed them. ⁷ They brought the donkey and the colt and put on them their cloaks, and he sat on them. ⁸ Most of the crowd spread their cloaks on the road, and others cut branches from the trees and spread them on the road. ⁹ And the crowds that went before him and that followed him were shouting, “Hosanna to the Son of David! Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord! Hosanna in the highest!” ¹⁰ And when he entered Jerusalem, the whole city was stirred up, saying, “Who is this?” ¹¹ And the crowds said, “This is the prophet Jesus, from Nazareth of Galilee.”

Sing To The King

Words and music by Billy Foote

Sing to the King Who is coming to reign
Glory to Jesus, the Lamb that was slain
Life and salvation His empire shall bring
And joy to the nations when Jesus is King

Come, let us sing a song
A song declaring that we belong to Jesus
He is all we need
Lift up a heart of praise
Sing now with voices raised to Jesus
Sing to the King

For His returning we watch and we pray
We will be ready the dawn of that day
We'll join in singing with all the redeemed
'Cause Satan is vanquished and Jesus is King

Hosanna

Words & music by Paul Baloche and Brenton Brown

Praise is rising, eyes are turning to You, we turn to You
Hope is stirring, hearts are yearning for You
We long for You
'Cause when we see You we find strength to face the day
In Your presence all our fears are washed away, washed away

Hosanna Hosanna, You are the God who saves us
Worthy of all our praises
Hosanna Hosanna, Come have your way among us
We welcome You here Lord Jesus

Hear the sound of hearts returning to You, we turn to You
In Your kingdom broken lives are made new,
You make us new
'Cause when we see You we find strength to face the day
In Your presence all our fears are washed away, washed away

Sermon Notes

For Further Reflection:

1. On what basis can Jesus claim ownership of the donkey and colt (vv. 1-3; Ps. 50:10; Col. 1:16)? How can you reflect the same kind of response to Jesus when he asks you for your time, talents and treasures?
2. What does Jesus' riding into Jerusalem on a colt of a donkey reveal about his character and mission (vs. 5; Zech. 9:9; Gen. 49:11; Matt. 11:28-29)? How might you reflect his character and mission in your home, work, and neighborhood (Mk. 10:42-45; Jn. 13:12-20; Phil. 2:1-11)?
3. How does the disciple's surrender of their cloaks to Jesus provoke the crowd to worship Christ (vv. 6-8; 2 Kgs. 9:13)? In what ways is your worship of Christ a witness to others (Rom. 6:13, 16, 19; 12:1; Ps. 50:13-14; 1 Cor. 6:20; 1 Pt. 2:5)?
4. What does the shouting of Hosanna mean (vs. 9; Ps. 118: 25-26; Rev. 7:10)? How do you glorify God with your life (1 Cor. 10:31; Col. 3:12-17; 1 Pet. 4:11)?
5. What claims do the Galilean crowds make about Jesus that threaten the city of Jerusalem and the Roman authorities (vv. 10-11, 46; Deut. 18:15-19; Luke 7:16; 13:33; 24:19; John 4:19; 6:14; 7:40; 9:17; cf. Mark 6:15; Luke 9:8, 19; John 1:21)? How are Jesus' claims and identity a threat to you and your lifestyle (Matt. 16:24; Mk. 8:34; Lk. 9:23; 2 Tim. 3:12)?
