Discussion Questions - These are a guide and conversation starter, not a script.

1. What credentials did Nicodemus have in v. 1? What are equivalent credentials that someone might claim today? Why are these insufficient to bring about the kind of life that God requires?

2. In vv. 3-8, what do we learn about what it means to be born again? Write down as many aspects as you can see from these verses.

3. What is the meaning of Jesus' analogy of the wind in v. 8? What are the effects of being born by the Spirit that should be seen in someone's life?

4. If you have been born again, how can you nourish and guard the new life that God has put within us?

5. How can we share the hope of being born again to unbelievers? Why is this such good news?
