Discussion Questions

1. In Psalm 9:1-2, David directs himself to worship God in four ways. How can you make these 2 verses the anthem of your life?

2. What will God do to the names and the memory of the wicked in vv. 5-6? How is this a comfort to the godly?

3. How have you seen the truths of vv. 9-10 in your life? What does it mean to know God's name in v. 10? How does knowing His name move our hearts to trust Him?

4. For those who have seen God's faithfulness in vv. 9-10, what is their proper response in v. 11? Note the repetition of "the peoples" in verses 8 and 11. What must we do to "the peoples" whom God will one day judge?

On the basis of God's deliverance of David in v. 13, how will he respond in v. 14?

5. What does this psalm tell us is the responsibility of God's people as we live in a wicked world awaiting God's final judgment?
