

God's family is called the church.
Your church friends are your brothers and sisters – your wonderful and colorful church family. You can enjoy loving them and loving God with them.

This is God's very good idea:
lots of different people enjoying loving him and loving each other.