

Galatians – Lesson 29

Galatians 5:2-6

March 2, 2025

Introduction/Review

- What has been Paul's main polemic (critical argument) throughout Chapters 1-4 of Galatians?
- Recall the major theme that Paul introduced in Gal. 5:1
- Do you remember the importance of understanding the prepositions?
- Before moving on with the teachings in Chapter 5, let's take some time to lay some groundwork for understanding potentially confusing statements in Gal. 5:2-6

Food for thought:

- Have you ever had a conversation or argument with someone about the question of whether one can lose their salvation?
- How did that conversation go?
- Is there anything you wish you would have done differently?

➔ What are some scriptures that might seem to support the idea that one can lose or forfeit their salvation?

Scripture Ref: _____

Meaning/Summary: _____

➔ What are some scriptures that teach the permanence of once's salvation?

Scripture Ref: _____

Meaning/Summary: _____

Some Questions and Considerations:

Encouragement: rather than being baited into an argument with someone about this subject, consider:

- Ask them what they mean by the word "salvation"?
- What does the word "salvation" mean to you?
