in a rich program of choral and organ music ranging from Baroque to contemporary repertoire, from Palestrina through Bach to African-American Spirituals and much more.

The Wesley Singers were established in January 2018 and quickly gained a reputation as one of East Texas' premier vocal a-cappella ensembles. Led by music director Jim Broussard, the group has performed in concert at home in Texas as well as on tour in the United Kingdom. The summer of 2019 the group will be on tour in Switzerland and Northern Italy with concerts in Zürich, Lucerne, Lugano and Milano. The ensemble is made up of professional and amateur musicians who enjoy singing great choral literature from composers from the Renaissance to the contemporary.

Concert duration: ca. 1 h15
