- b. How often do we use our words to bring death?
- c. Are we opening spiritual doors of blessing?
- d. Are we putting up barriers that lead to death?

• Proverbs 12:18

Reckless words pierce like a sword, but the tongue of the wise brings healing.

The Importance of God Bless You

Greek word that blessing comes out of is Eulogeo.

- a. To praise
- b. Celebrate with praises.
- c. Invoke blessing.
- d. To consecrate with prayers

When we say, “GOD BLESS YOU”
we are saying 5 things:

1. We want to make someone whole with words –

may God COMPLETELY and TOTALLY HEAL you in your SPIRIT, MIND, & IN YOUR BODY. A person's whole being.

2. It's a request for Divine Assistance – May God's personal Assistance be evident upon your life. May you be known as one who God assists.

3. I wish you well and pray God's favorable advantages be upon you. May life be evident to others that you live in God's advantage.

4. May God's Joy and Prosperity be evident in your life and may you grow in that blessing.

5. It is a request for Divine Affirmation – You are His treasure – your life testifies you are highly treasured sons and daughters.

A Eulogy – Mr. Pignati – “THE PIGMAN”

Why do we only give beautiful Eulogies to the deceased? Why do we wait to let people know they are treasured until after they are gone? Why not write someone a beautiful eulogy of their life now? Bless them now? Speak LIFE over them NOW???? What would that look like?

• Proverbs 16: 24

Pleasant words are as a honeycomb, sweet to the soul, and health to the bones.
