The days immediately before that first Easter Sunday were days of dreadful sadness and intense pain. The disciples' dearest, closest friend had been arrested, tried, beaten, crucified, and was now dead. As a result, the disciples were emotionally, physically, and psychologically exhausted. Then some of the women who were with them had been to visit the tomb and claimed the body of Jesus was gone. Luke 24:13-35

Questions...

Why did it have to be this way?

Could there have been a better timeframe?

Where is the promised kingdom?

How do we make sense of all this?

Sometimes we have more QUESTIONS than ANSWERS.
The disciples were feeling lost, heartbroken, and empty.

Turning Point

Then, on Easter Sunday afternoon things began to change. Two disciples on the Road to Emmaus (Luke 24:13-35) were met by Jesus, but they did not recognize Him.

The greatest need of the disciples was to understand the scope of what had taken place.

- conversation
- friendship

- companionship
- invitation

RESURRECTION: has occurred and the fulfilment of the eternal redemptive purposes of God has been fulfilled. Redemption and renewal are now available for the first time in all of eternity!

Teaching that Persuades

*Don't you see that these things had to happen, that the Messiah had to suffer and only then enter into his glory?" Then he started at the beginning, with the Books of Moses, and went on through all the Prophets, pointing out everything in the Scriptures that referred to him. Luke 24:26-27 MSG

In addition to conversation,

Invitation—

He provides Explanation
Revelation

Transformation
and Truth—

*"Were not our hearts burning within us while he talked with us on the road and opened the scriptures to us?" Luke 24:32
