MARCH FOR JESUS

March for Jesus is a GO for May 30!
What a wonderful way to celebrate Jesus in the streets. Alternative plans are in place should we still be in a shelter-in-place situation.

ACTION STEP: Join with us for Unite714... pray morning and evening for the miraculous healing of our lands. ✨

The Backstory

Acts 21:10-11 tells of a prophecy Paul received, saying that if he went to Jerusalem, he would become a prisoner, then be turned over to the same Roman government that crucified Jesus.

His friends pleaded with him not to go, but Paul knew it was his assignment and he knew that God would be with him no matter what he experienced.

The Journey

- Paul leaves Caesaria.
- Paul, other prisoners, Roman guards, Luke and others board.
- The group changes ships. They board an Egyptians ship for Rome. (v. 6-8)
- Pit stop in Fair Havens, Isle of Crete. The Jewish people observed Yom Kippur and fasted one day. (v. 9-10)
- The bad storm took place; everybody lost hope, even Paul and Luke. (v. 11-20)
- After many nights, an angel appears to Paul to give him encouragement. (v. 23)
- Paul encourages everyone: "God will get us through this." (v. 221-26)
- The storm gets worse. Efforts are made to save the ship and people's lives. (v. 27-32)
- Nobody ate for fourteen days due to seasickness. Paul encouraged all to eat and stated again how God would get them through this. They listened to Paul and ate. He blessed the food as a witness to all. (v. 33-38)
- They spotted land—Malta Island. The storm wrecked the ship but everybody made it safe to land. (v. 39-44)

Good Things Come Out of Bad Times

“Don’t curse your storms. God’s love for us is so grand that He personally plans for our own Maltas. Too often, what we call a shipwreck God is calling a place of renewal. What we’re calling an interruption, God is calling therapy. What we’re calling shattered dreams, God is calling recuperation.” –Wendell Hutchins II

Takeaways

1

Generosity

*Once safely on shore, we found out that the island was called Malta. The islanders showed us unusual kindness. They built a fire and welcomed us all because it was raining and cold. Acts 28:1-2

2

Community

*There was an estate nearby that belonged to Publius, the chief official of the island. He welcomed us to his home and showed us generous hospitality for three days. Acts 28:7

3

Clarity

*His father was sick in bed, suffering from fever and dysentery. Paul went in to see him and, after prayer, placed his hands on him and healed him. When this had happened, the rest of the sick on the island came and were cured. Acts 28:8-9

4

Celebration

They honored us in many ways; and when we were ready to sail, they furnished us with the supplies we needed.
