*For I delivered to you as of first importance what I also received: that Christ died for our sins in accordance with the Scriptures, that he was buried, that he was raised on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures, 1 Corinthians 15:3-4

The day the dream died

On Saturday morning after Jesus' crucifixion, the disciples woke after not having slept for two days. The city that had screamed for blood the day before was quiet. Crowds had disbanded.

Jesus was dead.

Sunday, was the day believers gave birth to the most death-defying, grave-defeating, fear-destroying, hope-inspiring, transcendent joy in the history of the world.

The aftermath of the crucifixion

> They were full of doubt
Mark 16:11, Luke 24:11
Luke 24:25, Matthew 28:17

> They mourned at the loss of Jesus Mark 16:10

> Thomas was devastated
John 20:25

There are moments when our dreams seem to go up in a puff of smoke, when our hopes are mortally wounded by the vicious mobs of the disappointed.” -Phillip Brassfield

Third-day stories

Abraham at Moriah Genesis 22:1-18
Joseph's brothers put in prison Genesis 42:16-18
Israeli spies hid by Rahab Joshua 2:4-6, 22-23
Esther and her maidens fast Esther 4:16

*Come, let us return to the Lord; for he has torn us, that he may heal us; he has struck us down, and he will bind us up.
After two days he will revive us; on the third day he will raise us up that we may live before him.*

The silence of God

All three-day stories share a structure. On the first day there is trouble, and on the third day there is deliverance. On the second day, there seems to be nothing – just the continuation of trouble. And on the (third day) there is deliverance!

The crucifixion

Friday: a nightmare day

- Pure terror
- A hyper-adrenaline day

Saturday: the day when nothing happens (or does it?)

- Jesus' followers gather
- Assess what went wrong

Saturday: on the Jesus' side of things

- He went to hell to pick up some keys: death; hell; grave
- He loosed the spirits of the righteous to the heavens
- He trampled over the evil one and his followers
- Jesus even had a VICTORY PARADE!

Sunday: resurrection day

- Joyful news
- Some worshiped; some doubted

The dream lives again

*Truly, truly, I say to you, unless a grain of wheat falls into the earth and dies, it remains alone; but if it dies, it bears much fruit. John 12:24

Jesus came to resurrect those dreams that have died.

Do you have NOW FAITH to see God fulfill those dreams His way?
