In the Old Testament divine epiphanies always carried visible symbols which implied God's presence.

In the new testament we see this at Jesus baptism, crucifixion and on the Day of Pentecost.

TONGUES

Acts 2:4:8 "All of them were filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in other tongues as the Spirit enabled them. Now there were staying in Jerusalem God fearing Jews from every nation under heaven. When they heard this sound, a crowd came together in bewilderment, because each one heard their own language being spoken. Utterly amazed, they asked: 'Aren't all these who are speaking Galileans? Then how is it that each of us hears them in our native language?'"

It is at this moment that Peter reminds them of the prophecy of Joel, explains who Jesus is, quotes David's words about him, and then urges them to repentance.

WIND

John 3:8 "The Spirit is like the wind that blows wherever it wants to"

Acts 2:2 "And suddenly there came from the sky a noise like a strong driving wind, and it filled the entire house in which they were."

It is at this moment that the breath of life filled the Church just as it filled Adam's lungs in Genesis 2:7 and when he breathed life and power into His apostles in John 20:22.

FIRE

Matthew 3:11/Luke 3:16 John the Baptist tells them that the one who comes after him will “baptize them with the Holy Spirit and with fire.”

Acts 2:3 They saw what seemed to be tongues of fire that separated and came to rest on each of them.“

It is at this moment the appearance of fire was a sign of God’s unmistakable presence among His people.

Fire is consistently associated with two things: God’s presence and the formation of a temple. It was fire that showed up when God’s presence arrived and marked his dwelling space.

- Burning bush to Moses
- Pillar of fire that led the Israelites to freedom
- Fire, wind and lightning on Mt. Sinai
- Column of fire hovering over the tabernacle
- “Dwelling Glory” comes as fire when the permanent temple is built

Once a fire is started, winds increase the oxygen supply, which produces hotter flames and a fiercer fire!!

The direction and force of the wind determines where and how far the fire will go.

It is in THIS very moment...now today that WE must rise up and fan the flame!!

DO THE Next Thing

From an old English parsonage down by the sea
There came in the twilight a message to me; Its quaint Saxon legend, deeply engraven, Hath, it seems to me, teaching from Heaven. And on through the doors the quiet words ring Like a low inspiration:

DO THE Next Thing

Many a questioning, many a fear, Many a doubt, hath its quieting here. Moment by moment, let down from Heaven, Time, opportunity, and guidance are given. Fear not tomorrows, child of the King, Trust them with Jesus, do the next thing

Do it immediately, do it with prayer;

Do it reliantly, casting all care;

Do it with reverence, tracing His hand Who placed it before thee with earnest command. Stayed on

*Omnipotence, safe 'neath His wing, Leave all results,
do the next thing*

Looking for Jesus, ever serener, Working or suffering, be thy demeanor; In His dear presence, the rest of His calm, The light of His countenance be thy psalm, Strong in His faithfulness, praise and sing.
