QUOTE OF THE WEEK

“You cannot hold God hostage (to your questions). He doesn't owe you an answer. If you want the peace that passes understanding, you're going to have to give up your right to understanding. It's called trust.” —Bill Johnson

Epiphany: A moment of enlightenment, a revelation, a moment when the light goes on and understanding is achieved. A moment when what has been unclear, misunderstood, without harmony, or has been kept secret is finally revealed.

Knowledge without revelation is nothing more than going through the motions. Knowledge with revelation adds conviction, which changes the atmosphere of the game.

Matthew 28:7-10, 16-20

— The Great *Commission —

Luke 24:36-40, 44-49

— Jesus'* Appearance to the Disciples —

John 21:1-8, 14-19

— The Invitation to *Restoration —

Jesus used this opportunity to coach His disciples.

Jesus did not bring up their failures.

Jesus did not bring up Peter's betrayal.

Jesus met them in an everyday situation.

Jesus used this time to feed, teach and fellowship.

Jesus prepared them for their next mission.

Key Points:

- *There is nothing more humbling than being broken in your own weakness.
- *Knowledge without revelation is powerless to effect change.
- *Power without full understanding always produces confusion.
- *Restoration often leads to a revelation moment.
- *God's mission for your life is still valid after mistakes and failures.
