METRICS THAT MATTER (06/04/23)

Describing contentment:

1. An innermost assurance in the sovereignty and goodness of God that produces joy, peace and thanksgiving regardless of outside circumstances.
2. Contentment is rooted in who God is.
3. Contentment is fitting our heart to our circumstances.

What does it look like?

Exhibits of hope:

Always be ready to give a defense to everyone who asks you a reason for the hope that is in you. 1 Peter 3:15

Encouragers in faith:

Therefore, brethren, in all our affliction and distress we were comforted concerning you by your faith. For now we live, if you stand fast in the Lord. For what thanks can we render to God for you, for all the joy with which we rejoice for your sake before our God. 1 Thessalonians 3:7-9

Overflowers of joy:

“These things I have spoken to you, that My joy may remain in you, and that your joy may be full. John 15:11

Is it important?

Contentment is a command. Hebrews 13:5

Contentment is a matter of the heart. Jude 15, 16

Contentment is refusing to resent. Genesis 15:19-20

Contentment is a learned process. Philippians 4:12

Learning to be content

Not that I speak in regard to need, for I have learned in whatever state I am, to be content: I know how to be abased, and I know how to abound. Everywhere and in all things I have learned both to be full and to be hungry, both to abound and to suffer need. I can do all things through Christ who strengthens me. Philippians 4:11-13

Paul's three "I" statements about his learned experience

I know how to be abased.
I know how to abound.

2

I have learned to be content.

- To enjoy every blessing. Philippians 4:8
- Affirm the sufficiency of Christ. Philippians 4:13
- Not indifferent to circumstances. 2 Corinthians 12:9

3

I live a God-centered life.
1 Timothy 6:6

Paul was captivated by Jesus.

He was sold out to Jesus.

His life was about sharing the Good News!

Contentment is not a feeling. It is a life decision to follow Jesus and allow Him to rule and reign over us!
