Proverbs 23:7(KJV) “For as he thinks in his heart, so is he.”

The heart and mind, where our thoughts reside, represent our invisible, inner person. This inner person is who we are. And this inner person determines our moral character. For this reason, we are what we think.

The Hebrew verb for “think’ in this verse means to calculate or estimate. Every choice has a result, or consequence. Choose wisely to have the life that you desire.

Deuteronomy 30:11-19
Moses and Israel - Obedience

Joshua 24:1-15 Joshua and the Tribes of Israel - Loyalty

Luke 10:38-42
Mary and Martha – Service

Making decisions can be difficult, but when we humble ourselves and seek God’s guidance, we can be confident in the outcome of the choices we make.

Psalms 90:12 “So teach us to number our days, that we may apply our hearts unto wisdom.”

Romans 12:2 “Do not be conformed to this world, but be transformed by the renewal of your mind, that by testing you may discern what is the will of God, what is good and acceptable and perfect.”

What we allow into our minds affects the condition of our hearts. What we allow to take roots in our hearts will be what drives our motives, responses, choices and actions.

So can making wise choices become part of our natural instinct and character?

Galatians 5:16-26 “So I say, walk by the Spirit, and you will not gratify the desires of the flesh. For the flesh desires what is contrary to the Spirit, and the Spirit what is contrary to the flesh. They are in conflict with each other, so that you are not to do whatever you want. But if you are led by the Spirit, you are not under the law. The acts of the flesh are obvious: sexual immorality, impurity and debauchery; idolatry and witchcraft; hatred, discord, jealousy, fits of rage, selfish ambition, dissensions, factions and envy; drunkenness, orgies, and the like. I warn you, as I did before, that those who live like this will not inherit the kingdom of God. But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, forbearance, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness and self-control. Against such things there is no law. Those who belong to Christ Jesus have crucified the flesh with its passions and desires. Since we live by the Spirit, let us keep in step with the Spirit. Let us not become conceited, provoking and envying each other.”
