Matthew 6:21 “For where your treasure is, there your heart will be also.”

In a physical sense your heart is a vital organ. It pumps the blood from the heart and circulates it throughout the body carrying vitamins and nutrients-and is a main determining factor as to whether you are alive or dead.

In an emotional sense your heart is the center of your feelings and emotions-which in turn affect your choices, words and actions.

In a spiritual sense your heart determines what you value or what you have placed a priority in-your every day walk will be determined by what is in your heart

2 Corinthians 4:7 “We have this treasure in earthen vessels, that the excellency of the power may be of God, and not of us.”

Matthew 6:19 “Do not store up for yourselves treasures on earth, where moth and rust consume and where thieves break in and steal; but store up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust consume and where thieves do not break in and steal.”

What is the treasure being referenced here?

Acts 1:4 “And being assembled together with them, commanded them that they should not depart from Jerusalem, but wait for the promise of the Father, which, saith he, ye have heard of me.”

Must have been pretty important for this to be the last thing He said to them before ascending into heaven.

Matthew 6:33 “Seek ye first the kingdom of God, and his righteousness; and all these things shall be added unto you.”

Its not a one-time decision for life that we make at the time we receive salvation. It's a lifestyle of daily decisions to follow Him and live for Him in everything we say and do.

We affect the world around us by our overflow. We can't over flow if we aren't full. We can't stay full if we aren't refilling from the source.

Sample Decisions to make for a God-first Life :

1. I will make God's family my primary family
2. I will engage in the community life of the church
3. I will be filled by and walk in the Spirit
4. I will worship God on my own and with my church
5. I will spend time with God in prayer and the Word
6. I will give of my self and of my means
7. I will experience the freedom, joy and blessing that God offers
