ANCHOR VERSES

2 Timothy 1:6-7

For this reason I remind you to fan into flame the gift of God, which is in you through the laying on of my hands, for God gave us a spirit not of fear but of power and love and self-control.

2 Timothy 1:6-7

Big Idea: Take seriously Paul's instruction to discern and develop the gift(s) that God has given you so that His kingdom can benefit through your yieldedness.

Have no doubt you are gifted.

God has given each of you a gift from his great variety of spiritual gifts. Use them well to serve one another.

1 Peter 4:10 NLT

For God's gifts and his call can never be withdrawn. Romans 11:29 NLT

Let your gift be ignited

- Don't hang back waiting for an E.T. revelation.
- Most of you know the gift(s) we have been given.
- Preparation is essential. What kind of preparation will multiply your effectiveness?

"fan into flame the gift of God which is in you through the laying on of my hands..." 2 Timothy 1:6

DETERMINE TO DISCOVER AND DEVELOP YOUR GIFT.

Gifts are like muscles: The more you use them, the bigger they get. You can and should strengthen, develop, and grow any gift God has given you. You get better at using a gift by practice, studying, and learning from other people who have the same gift.

When God gives you something, he will give you even more of it if you use it well.

God's power at work in you

When you use your gifts correctly, God gets the glory. And you certainly can't please God with gifts you don't have. God doesn't expect you to be talented or gifted at everything. He just wants you to use what he's given you

His gifts are life-giving.

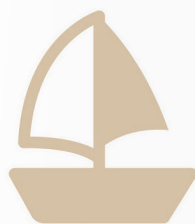

His gifts can bring revelation, healing, or growth.

His gifts can be an answer to someone's prayer.

His gifts can bring long-expected freedom to someone who has been bound.
