QUOTE OF THE WEEK

“When people walk away from you, let them go. Your destiny is never tied to anyone who leaves you, and it doesn’t mean they are bad people. It just means their part in your story is over.” —T.D. Jakes

On that day, when evening had come, he said to them, "Let us go across to the other side." And leaving the crowd, they took him with them in the boat, just as he was. And other boats were with him. And a great windstorm arose, and the waves were breaking into the boat, so that the boat was already filling. But he was in the stern, asleep on the cushion. And they woke him and said to him, "Teacher, do you not care that we are perishing?" And he awoke and rebuked the wind and said to the sea, "Peace! Be still!" And the wind ceased, and there was a great calm. He said to them, "Why are you so afraid? Have you still no faith?" And they were filled with great fear and said to one another, "Who then is this, that even the wind and the sea obey him?" Mark 4:35-41

Things to consider..

- Now, this must have been some kind of storm, because these are experienced fishermen, and they've been in lots of storms.
- Jesus, who is tired from a tough day of ministry, has a pillow over his head trying to catch some sleep.
- But why is he intending to sleep if he knows a storm is coming?
- You see, this is all a SET UP!
- So the disciples, in fear, wake him up with the question, "Don't you care that we are perishing?"

What Jesus does

Jesus takes some bold action:

And he awoke and rebuked the wind and said to the sea, "Peace! Be still!"

He stood up and rebuked the weather.

Just like he was a rowdy child.

No incantations. No magic wand.

Jesus put the storm in time out.

"Get over in the corner and be quiet."

Check it out: "And the wind ceased, and there was a great calm." Immediately both the wind ceased and the waves died down.

"When the storm came they were afraid.

After the storm passed they were filled with great fear!"

"Who then is this, that even the wind and the sea obey him?"

THE RESCUE SCARED THEM MORE THAN THE STORM!

Seeing Jesus' power over the storm was more terrifying than thinking they were going to die in the storm.

Jews believed that no one could command the weather but God.

Jesus himself stilled the storm—through his own power.

He rebuked the weather...and it obeyed.

He commanded disease and death...and they yielded.

He spoke to demons...and they surrendered.

Who are you to disobey him?

Worry in our lives comes from either:

- forgetting the power of Jesus over the storm or
- doubting his commitment to us in the storm.

In a storm, God will do one of two things:

- Sometimes, he will tell the storm: "Peace, be still."
- Sometimes, he will tell you: "Peace, be still...I'm with you."

Where are you in your storm?

Are you listening to the storm chaser?

He is speaking!

Dear Friends—

Bishop Mike Lane was with us in September of 2021. His visit was memorable for a number of reasons:

1. His visit was a Sunday designated as Miracle Sunday.
2. Miracles unfolded as he called forth our faith.
3. People were healed, encouraged, and challenged.

Bishop Lane was with us as we were about to cross the threshold out of the pandemic. He shared some solid truth that served us well.

He plans to be with us again. I'm asking you to clear your calendar for this event we are calling, The Next Step. It is not just another Sunday service. It is a venue where God will reveal "next steps" for people who have been wrestling with anxiety, fear, and apprehension about their futures.

If you are looking for a pathway that is God-approved and brimming with God's favor regarding your future, you won't want to miss this celebration!
