YOUTH MISSION TRIP RECAP

This year's mission trip to Wichita, Kansas, was attended by four young men: Ellis Mescher, Kyle Hurt, Joey Droptiny and Ty McKinnis. Cindy Twillman and Angel Mescher accompanied these young men for several days of service, leaving last Sunday.

MONDAY: The group kicked off their service with yard work for Miss Linda, followed by treats being delivered to the Crossover Recovery Center that serves those recovering from various types of addictions. The boys heard a story about what addiction can do to your life. In the evening, the group grilled dinner for veterans at Passageways Ltd. The men - all formerly homeless veterans - had a great conversation with the group.

TUESDAY: Day two of service began with yard work for Mr. Jerry, followed by cleaning at the Gently Used Resale store - a ministry benefiting the mentally challenged. Later, the group played Bingo with residents of an assisted living facility.

Service was followed by fun each day as the boys enjoyed playing basketball at the church and swimming in the hotel pool. The trip was capped off with a visit to the Nifty Nut House. Upon return, Cindy commented "The boys were wonderful representatives of King of Kings and God!"

Thank you for all your service boys! Thank you to Cindy Twillman and Angel Mescher for organizing and chaperoning. Finally, thank you to the entire congregation for continuing to support mission trips like this each summer.
