Blessed Baptisms

When Moses was born, he arrived in perilous days. Pharaoh, that genocidal maniac, wanted all of the Israelite baby boys dead. And his mother, a woman who had love and courage in equal measure, risked her own life to hide him from the Egyptians. But she soon recognized that she could not protect him anymore. So, she did something daring. She set him in a little basket (the word in Hebrew means "ark"), and trusted God to rescue him like He rescued Noah all those years ago. And, of course, God does deliver Moses.

When we bring our children to be baptized, parents live out that same story. We know that we cannot protect our children from sin, death, and the devil. But the God who rescued Noah (and Moses and David and Daniel) can rescue our children. We bring our children to the font, confident that He will keep His promises, and deliver them from evil.

God's blessings to all of our recently baptized children and their families!

2024 CHRISMON

King of Kings Bazaar Crafters introduced a new tradition last year at the Holiday Bazaar — an annual Chrismon (Christian ornament). This year's 2024 design is the Trefoil, with three intertwining rings that represent the Holy Trinity — the Father, Son and Holy Spirit. These beautiful ornaments are made of white felt, adorned with sequins and beads, and hand-sewn with Christian love by the women of this congregation. Arrive early to purchase your limited-edition 2024 Chrismon for your home collection.

Escape Room fun at Breakout KC

Our youth groups recently met up at a local escape room to try their skills at uncoding various puzzles to breakout of each room. Over the two events, we had 30 youth in attendance and six chaperones. While not all of the groups were able to beat the clock, our youth worked together and had a fun afternoon of fellowship and teamwork. Standout problem solver recognition goes to Ben Wollberg in Jr. Youth and Chris Crouch for the Sr. Youth event. Way to go teams!
