Daily Lectionary

from Lutheran Service Book p. 299-304

Following historic practice, this lectionary presents a continuous reading through the books of the Bible, often associating certain books with particular seasons of the Church Year. The goal is not to read through the entire Bible each year. Rather, two readings of 15-25 verses each are provided for each day – one from the Old Testament, the other from the New Testament. Under this plan, nearly all of the New Testament and approximately one-third of the Old Testament are read each year. Please note the following:

- The lectionary begins with Ash Wednesday. During the season of Lent and Easter (the movable season in the Church Year) the Church Year calendar is followed
- Following Holy Trinity Sunday, the calendar year is followed. The calendar readings are continued until the beginning of Lent in the following year.
- Occasionally a third, option reading is listed in italic type. This reading covers materials that would otherwise be omitted from the daily readings. Sometimes it provides parallel readings, for example, from the minor prophets.
- A chart for daily psalm readings is provided at the end

Table of Psalms For Daily Prayer

The following seasonal psalm cycle may be used with the assigned readings in the Daily Lectionary. In addition to the psalms appointed for each morning according to season, Psalms 145-150 may also be prayed in the morning throughout the year according to the following weekly schedule: Sunday–Psalm 150; Monday–Psalm 145; Tuesday –Psalm 146; Wednesday–Psalm 147:1-11; Thursday–Psalm 147:12-20; Friday–Psalm 148; Saturday–Psalm 149. The four weeks under “General” are used during the Time of the Church and the season of Epiphany and may be repeated as often as necessary.
