6. Deacon Nominations For 2027-28

Deacons are dedicated men and women who serve as the church's servant officers. While they may not always be visible, they are essential to the church's vitality, serving in crucial areas like finance, hospitality, children's ministry, etc. We are taking nominations for men and women to serve as deacons for the 2027-2028 term. If you are a member of our church, please look for the nomination form via email on Sept. 28. Please prayerfully nominate men and women (who are members of LHCC) for deaconship for the 2027-2028 term.

Nominations will remain open until Saturday, October 10, 2026.

The congregational vote will take place on Sunday, December 13, 2026.

“The Lord of the Harvest”

Matthew 9:35-38; 10:1-4

Pastor Jeff Hyun

Point #1 – See as Jesus sees

Matthew 9:36a – ³⁶ When he saw the crowds...

Point #2 – Be moved as Jesus is moved

Matthew 9:36b – ³⁶ When he saw the crowds, he had compassion for them, because they were harassed and helpless, like sheep without a shepherd.

Point #3 – Pray (and be willing to go) – as Jesus Himself did

Matthew 9:37 – ³⁷ Then he said to his disciples, “The harvest is plentiful, but the laborers are few...

Matthew 9:38 – ³⁸ Therefore pray earnestly to the Lord of the harvest to send out laborers into his harvest.”

Matthew 10:5-8 – “5 These twelve Jesus sent out, instructing them, “Go nowhere among the Gentiles and enter no town of the Samaritans, 6 but go rather to the lost sheep of the house of Israel. 7 And proclaim as you go, saying, ‘The kingdom of heaven is at hand.’ 8 Heal the sick, raise the dead, cleanse lepers, cast out demons. You received without paying; give without pay.”

Cell Group Discussion Questions

Breaking the Ice:

1. When was the last time someone noticed a need you had before you said anything – and stepped in to meet it?

Digging Deeper:

2. Read Matt 9:35–36. What does Matthew tell us about Jesus when He looked at the crowds? What does this reveal about the way Jesus sees people?
3. When you look at people who are far from God, what do you tend to see first? How might Jesus see them differently?
4. Read Matt 9:36. We learned this week that the Greek word for compassion describes being moved deeply within. When was the last time you saw someone or something and you were moved this deeply with compassion?
5. Read Matt 9:37-38. What happens to the disciples after Jesus tells them to pray? What does this suggest about the relationship between praying and going?

As you pray for God to send workers into His harvest, who is one person or group He may be inviting you to reach out to? What might it look like to bless or minister to them this week?

Practice for the Week: See, Be Moved, Pray & Go

6. Begin each day with this prayer: “Lord, help me see people as You see them. Let my heart be moved by what moves Your heart. And as I pray for workers for Your harvest, make me willing to be an answer to that prayer.” Carry it with you as you move through your ordinary routines. Pay attention to the people you might usually pass by, or assume are doing fine.

This week, look for one opportunity to bless or minister to someone. Ask how they are doing, listen without rushing, and respond to what you hear. You might offer a listening ear, take time to pray with them, or make time for another conversation. Take one step toward them, trusting that the Lord of the harvest is already at work.
