Discussion Guide: Humanity- Made for Relationships

Passage: Genesis 2:18-24

Summary: Part of being made in a relational God's image is that we are made for relationships. It was not "very good" until God had created a "helper" suitable for Adam...Eve...and then created the first marriage between them. To be human is to be relational. What does it look like to live out our relational design in a world that constantly pushes us to be alone?

Discussion Questions

1. How do you experience loneliness in this life? What has that looked like in different seasons of your life?
2. How has God seen your loneliness and met your need?
3. What is one relationship you need to prioritize and ask for God's help to grow? What next step could you take?
4. Who is one neighbor God is inviting you see and love? What might that look like? What is a next step you can take?

At the end, take some time to pray for one another in smaller groups.
