INTRODUCTION

Pray. Take a moment to pray asking God to guide you in reflecting upon the Scripture text.

Read the Scripture text: 1 Corinthians 15:1-9

1 Now I would remind you, brothers, of the gospel I preached to you, which you received, in which you stand, 2 and by which you are being saved, if you hold fast to the word I preached to you— unless you believed in vain.

3 For I delivered to you as of first importance what I also received: that Christ died for our sins in accordance with the Scriptures, 4 that he was buried, that he was raised on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures, 5 and that he appeared to Cephas [i.e., Peter], then to the twelve.

6 Then he appeared to more than five hundred brothers at one time, most of whom are still alive, though some have fallen asleep. 7 Then he appeared to James, then to all the apostles. 8 Last of all, as to one untimely born, he appeared also to me. 9 For I am the least of the apostles, unworthy to be called an apostle, because I persecuted the church of God.

Key Points:

- There was an execution (“Christ died for our sins”), an empty tomb (“he was raised on the third day”), and there were eyewitness (he appeared to Cephas [Peter], James, the apostles, Paul, and more than 500 hundred witnesses at one time).
- This is the heart of the “gospel” which brings salvation if embraced (1 Corinthians 15:1-2).

QUESTIONS

1. In this passage, the Apostle Paul says the contents of the gospel are of first importance: Jesus died for our sins, was buried, and on the third day rose again. This is central to understanding the gospel of Jesus.
 - In your experience, do you think Christians in general and churches in particular do a good job of “staying on point” with this message?
 - What are some other “messages” Christians and churches sometimes center on other than what Paul stressed as of first importance?

2. Why does Paul stress that Jesus appeared to all kinds of people after his death and resurrection to drive home his point?
3. How should the resurrection of Jesus transform our thinking regarding death? Paul would elsewhere write, “By his power God raised the Lord from the dead, and he will raise us also” (1 Corinthians 6:14). Or to put it another way, How does this text help us to understand our personal stories in the light of God’s story of redemption and resurrection?
4. How does this passage help us to understand the kind of church we want MHC to be? How should it inform everything we do?
5. How does this passage serve as an invitation for us to join God’s mission? What kind of community is this text calling us to become for the sake of the world?
6. How does this text serve as Good News for those outside the faith? What kind of new life / future in Christ is this text calling our city to experience?
