

Gentle and Lowly: Put on Compassionate Hearts

Matthew 11:25-30

January 30, 2022

How do you feel when other people don't follow the rules and still seem to be successful?

Read Matthew 11:28-29

Where else do we read about Christ describing his heart? What does this indicate about God's love for sinful mankind?

Why cannot Christ's gentle and lowly heart not be the focus of the Gospel?

Read Matthew 12:1-8

Why were the Pharisees upset with Christ? How did Christ respond?

Read Romans 5:6-8

Does this passage convey God's toleration of us or his loving acceptance?

Who makes the final decision about salvation?

What does this verse reveal about our sin and forgiveness in Christ?

Personal Application

Is our focus on Christ's love and His death on the cross for our sins, or is it on the other things we think God should do for us?

When we look at non-believers, do we see the rules they've broken, or do we see their need of Christ's forgiveness?

How can an attitude of self-righteousness and anger towards others be a hinderance in our evangelism?

What should we do when we're frustrated with the attitudes and actions of non-Christians?

Our Prayers

We would always be ready to speak the Gospel in all circumstances with a gentle spirit.

Ask the Lord to save those around us.
