

The Winds and the Words of God | Nathan Loudin | Acts 27-28

January 7, 2023

What do you think about the hard scenarios in your life?

What roles do the winds play in this episode of Paul's life in Acts 27-28? (Read the appropriate verses)

What can we discern about the purpose of God from these verses?

In Acts 28:23, whom did Paul meet with?

What writings did Paul use to teach about Christ?

In Acts 28:28 we have the last recorded words of Paul (in Acts) "They will listen". Who would listen and why was that significant?

Application

How should you approach the 'unfortunate' circumstances in your life?

What is our typical reaction to difficult circumstances, and what should our reaction be instead?

Whom can you declare the gospel or share gospel literature with this week?

How does the following quote apply to this sermon: "Write your plans in pencil and give God the eraser."?

Prayer:

Help us to always be aware of your purpose in all the circumstances of our lives.

Please enable us to proclaim Christ in all circumstances.
