General Description

Minerva Area Christian School is seeking an enthusiastic Band Teacher to develop and lead our growing instrumental music program for students entering 4th grade and above. This part-time, contracted position is ideal for a musician-educator who desires to blend musical excellence with a Christ-centered approach to teaching. As a valued member of our team, you will help students discover their God-given talents while fostering discipline, creativity, and a love for music.

Responsibilities

- Provide instruction in instrumental music for students in 4th grade and higher.
- Develop engaging lessons that integrate a Biblical worldview and encourage musical growth.
- Direct rehearsals and prepare students for concerts, chapels, and school events.
- Create a positive learning environment where students feel supported and inspired.
- Assess student progress and provide constructive feedback to promote skill development.
- Collaborate with staff to support schoolwide programming and special events.
- Model Christian character and uphold school policies as a positive role model.

Qualifications

- Bachelor's degree in Music Education or related field preferred (or in progress); eligibility for Ohio certification is a plus.
- Proficiency in instrumental music instruction and ensemble direction.
- Ability to integrate Biblical principles into teaching and classroom culture.
- Strong communication and interpersonal skills for working with students, families, and colleagues.
- Organizational skills and attention to detail.
- Basic computer literacy and comfort with standard applications.

Benefits

- Dental, vision, and life insurance
- Professional development opportunities
- Supportive, collaborative, faith-based work environment
- Opportunities for spiritual growth and community involvement

Join Our Team
