Randy Ehlers/Morningside Bible Church

Greetings, I am writing a brief update to let you know how the fund raising for the Hope Radio Solar Project turned out. As 2022 was winding down, we had a flurry of donations that came in the last two days and then a few that came in the first week of 2023. So what was the result? This video tells the story:

Thanks for watching.

I have to say it was exciting to see God work in all of this. I remember thinking that our goal of $63,000 was an awfully steep hill to climb. However, I've been reminded that for God, it was incredibly easy to provide that money.

Some might be wondering if this solar project is really that important. Let me share a story from Hope Radio that just came to me this morning. Adam Drake received a listener at the station this morning and this is what he wrote about the encounter:

"A man named Danko who is from the Moba people group called Hope Radio this morning with a question. [Editor: He calls the radio almost every week asking questions and Patricia (receptionist) has answered him most times.] Today in the Bible reading on the radio in the Moba language, something pricked his heart and he said that Romans 1 is his condition. I (Adam Drake) asked him on the phone if I could meet up with him or if he could come to the radio. He came to the radio and I was able to answer his questions but it was clear he hadn't made a profession of faith yet. After talking for one hour to help in understanding his need of a Savior, he said he wasn't ready. He greeted everyone at the radio and was hoping to see others here but some were at lunch. Please pray for Danko's salvation."

This is just one story of how God is working in a spiritually dark area of this world. Having a solid electrical system that will keep us on the air is crucial for sending out the gospel. Thanks for your part in this ministry, we are excited to be a part of what God is doing in Togo.

Besides praying for Danko, I am getting ready to schedule my next trip to Togo. May seems to be the best month right now, so I need to figure out the dates. Please pray for airline tickets that are reasonably priced and of course for everything that will be happening while I am there (more on that next time).

In Christ,
The Silseths
