COME LET US WORSHIP OUR GOD

CALL TO WORSHIP

1 Chronicles 29:10b-13 ESV

Blessed are you, O LORD, the God of Israel our father, forever and ever. Yours, O LORD, is the greatness and the power and the glory and the victory and the majesty, for all that is in the heavens and in the earth is yours.

Yours is the kingdom, O LORD, and you are exalted as head above all.

Both riches and honor come from you, and you rule over all. In your hand are power and might, and in your hand it is to make great and to give strength to all.

And now we thank you, our God, and praise your glorious name.

RESPONSIVE READING

Romans 11:33-36 ESV

Oh, the depth of the riches and wisdom and knowledge of God! How unsearchable are his judgments and how inscrutable his ways! For who has known the mind of the Lord, or who has been his counselor? Or who has given a gift to him that he might be repaid?

For from him and through him and to him are all things. To him be glory forever. Amen

GUIDE ME, O THOU GREAT JEHOVAH

RESPONSIVE READING

Proverbs 3:5-10, 10:2-5 ESV

Trust in the LORD with all your heart, and do not lean on your own understanding.

In all your ways acknowledge him, and he will make straight your paths.

Be not wise in your own eyes; fear the LORD, and turn away from evil. It will be healing to your flesh and refreshment to your bones. Honor the LORD with your wealth and with the firstfruits of all your produce;

then your barns will be filled with plenty, and your vats will be bursting with wine.

Treasures gained by wickedness do not profit, but righteousness delivers from death. The LORD does not let the righteous go hungry, but he thwarts the craving of the wicked. A slack hand causes poverty, but the hand of the diligent makes rich.

He who gathers in summer is a prudent son, but he who sleeps in harvest is a son who brings shame.

PRAYER OF CONFESSION

Almighty and most merciful Father,
you have richly provided for us— granting more material blessings than most who have ever lived. By your providence, we dwell among the wealthiest people in all history. Yet we confess that we are often not content with what we have. We do not trust your provision, but worry that we have not enough for our security. We chase after luxuries we do not need and are tempted to provide for ourselves by questionable means.

Some of us underwork, neglecting the gifts and abilities you have given to provide for ourselves and to serve others. Some of us overwork, forgetting to rest and trust in your care. Though you have been generous with us, we have often been slow to give—to your kingdom, your church, and to the poor.

Have mercy upon us, O Lord. Forgive our discontent and self-reliance. Renew in us thankful hearts, that we may rejoice in your abundant provision— both material and spiritual— through the forgiveness and new life you have given us in Jesus Christ, in whose name we pray. Amen.

WORDS OF ASSURANCE

Colossians 2:13-14 ESV

You, who were dead in your trespasses and the uncircumcision of your flesh, God made alive together with him, having forgiven us all our trespasses, by canceling the record of debt that stood against us with its legal demands. This he set aside, nailing it to the cross.
