Exodus 21:33-22:17

March 16th, 2025

- Reread or review the passage together.
- Read through the sermon outline together.

Discussion Questions:

- Is there anything you learned in this passage that seemed new to you?
- How does this passage better inform your understanding of who God is?
- How do the truths revealed about God in these passages help shape the way believers should live in light of the Gospel? Explain.
- As Christians, how can we connect the truths we've learned from this section of God's Word and faithfully communicate them to a non-believer? What key points would you focus on, and how would you guide them toward the Gospel?"
- Mill Creek, how can this text guide our church community and foster a positive impact on our local body? Considering our whole church, What does an appropriate response look like in reference to the Scripture and sermon?

Application Questions:

- As Christians, how are we to "hear" the Old Covenant law and what are we do with it? How does it relate to our daily walk with Christ?
- What does restoration in Christ look like when you've been wronged? Are there opportunities in your life to seek restoration in relationships, whether you were the one wronged or the one who caused harm?
