Discussion Questions

Starter Questions

What is the funniest or most unique sign you've ever seen?

Group Discussion

After hearing the message what was new to you? What prompted you to re-examine an issue, attitude, or behavior? What inspired you to dig deeper into God's Word?

In what ways are thinking about the woman and the dragon as a sign helpful? In what ways could it be harmful? Consider the fact that a sign points us to something.

Aside from accusation, deceit, and death, how have you seen Satan make war on God's people?

Which of the 3 schemes have been most potent in your life? What strategy have you used (or what strategy will you now use) to defeat it?

Why are speaking truth (v 11) and rejoicing (v 12) so powerful? Which are you better at?

Read Matthew 2:13-15. What similarities do you find between this text and Revelation 12?

Do you agree that comfort can be a strategy that leads to death? What passage would you use to back up your position?

Digging Deeper

Re-read Revelation 12:11, the word for conquer can also be translated overcome. How can you be called an overcomer when the result of Satan's action was death?

Read Psalm 2:7-9. What similarities do you find between that passage and Revelation 12?

What is your next objective in life's proverbial battle plan?
