

A black and white line drawing of a crowd of people in traditional Middle Eastern attire, looking surprised or alarmed with their hands raised. The drawing is done in a simple, sketchy style with bold outlines. In the center, a woman with a headscarf and a long dress has her arms raised in a gesture of surprise or protest. Around her are several men with beards and head coverings, also looking on with expressions of concern or surprise. Some have their hands raised as well. The background is minimal, with a few vertical lines suggesting an interior setting.
