

JAMAICA MISSION TRIP 2024

WHEN: May 11-18, 2024 (Saturday to Saturday)

WHERE: Buff Bay, Portland, Jamaica - Buff Bay Circuit of Independent Baptist Churches

WHY: To grow in our understanding of ministry in the developing world, to foster a heart to serve cross-culturally, to come alongside our brethren in Christ to help in both practical and spiritual ways.

WHO: Young adults who are a part of One City Church. (Exceptions made on a case-by-case basis).

WHAT: There will be many different types of ministry opportunities including, but not limited to:

- Daily School Devotionals - Local primary schools
- Evangelistic Meetings - Opportunity for teaching, sharing testimonies of salvation, etc.
- Work Project - Painting or other physical help as determined by Pastor Allen.
- Sunday School - Children's Sunday School class at the Buff Bay Church on Sunday, May 12th.
- Preaching Opportunities - Pastor Vernon Allen leads 7 churches, one main church in Buff Bay and 6 mountain churches. He has requested 6 different men to fill the pulpit in those smaller churches on Sunday morning (Mother's Day sermon). This is an incredible opportunity for those who have little to no preaching experience! Pastor Alec did his first sermon (EVER!) at one of these small mountain churches 30+ years ago.
- Hospital Visit - Opportunity to pray with/encourage patients.
- Senior Center Visit - A devotional, music ministry, and craft for the seniors.
- Music Ministry - Various opportunities for leading singing/instrumental music at various venues (Sunday church services, school devotions, evening evangelism, senior center, etc.).

COST:

Transportation/Accommodation/Meals: For groups of 16 or more adults, the cost is $350 per person for the week. For groups of 15 or fewer adults, the cost is $400 per person for the week.
