

JAMAICA MISSION TRIP 2025

WHEN: March 1-8 (Saturday to Saturday)

WHERE: Buff Bay, Portland, Jamaica - Buff Bay Circuit of Independent Baptist Churches

WHY: To grow in our understanding of ministry in the developing world, to foster a heart to serve cross-culturally, to come alongside our brethren in Christ to help in both practical and spiritual ways.

WHO: Members/Attendees of One City Church (Exceptions made on a case-by-case basis).

WHAT: There will be many different types of ministry opportunities including, but not limited to:

- Daily School Devotionals - Local primary schools
- Evangelistic Meetings - Opportunity for teaching, sharing testimonies of salvation, etc.
- Work Project - Painting or other physical help as determined by Pastor Allen.
- Sunday School - Children's Sunday School class at the Buff Bay Church.
- Preaching Opportunities - Pastor Vernon Allen leads 7 churches, one main church in Buff Bay and 6 mountain churches. Pastor Alec preached his first sermon (EVER!) at one of these small mountain churches 30+ years ago.
- Hospital Visit - Opportunity to pray with/encourage patients.
- Senior Center Visit - A devotional, music ministry, and craft for the seniors.
- Music Ministry - Various opportunities for leading singing/instrumental music at various venues (Sunday church services, school devotions, evening evangelism, senior center, etc.)
- Sports Ministry – Opportunity to share the love of Christ through soccer

COST:

- Transportation/Accommodation/Meals: For groups of 16 or more adults, the cost is $350 per person for the week. For groups of 15 or fewer adults, the cost is $400 per person for the week.
- Flight: Approximately $360 Round-Trip (subject to change).
- Spending Money: Souvenirs, gifts from the market, or food/snacks/drinks (in addition to what is provided) are out of personal spending. Suggested amount, $50.
