Culture & Civic Action Class Begins June 4

In the current culture, it seems the values and faith of believers are constantly called into question. Though society once accepted and even respected Christianity, it is now hostile towards Christians and their faith. How as believers are we to live and navigate a culture that deems us to be offensive and full of hatred and bigotry? Pastor Adam will be leading a series on Culture & Civic Action starting Sunday, June 4 at 9 a.m. in the Coffee House. We will cover a broad perspective and specifically address a real-world issue that communities are facing, "Literature in Libraries."

Adorn Pool Party

The Adorn Ladies Bible Study will gather for a pool party on Tuesday, June 13 at 11 a.m. at the home of Pam Stoneback. Please bring a main dish or side to share and it's a rain or shine event!
