CHURCH LOCKUP
If you unlock a door and come in the Church, please make sure you lock it back and set the alarm. The office staff have come in to several doors unlocked and the alarm not set. This is unsettling for them because not many are here in the summer and they are normally coming in alone. Thank you for your help in this matter.

Notices

From the pages of the "Little Flock"

Rev. Henry Augusta Williams, a missionary Baptist Church builder, lead in the building of a small wood framed one room white-clad board first house of worship for the growing "Little Flock" on Dailey Street in Piedmont in 1878. The following letter appeared in the Alabama Baptist Newspaper on Thursday, June 27, 1878: Now brethren, in behalf of the few good sisters and the cause of Jesus Christ at this place, I ask you to help me build a Baptist house of worship here. Considering the population, there is not a more important location for a Baptist meeting house in my whole district than this. We want a house 25X40 feet, neatly finished.

My Dear Church Family: Thank you so much for your love and response to the need to help with the Food Distribution for the Piedmont Benevolence Center. The only way we can serve our area is by volunteers like you that always fill a need. Thank you all, Love, Sandy
