Notices

From the pages of the "Little Flock"

Protracted revival meetings in the hot evenings of late August with guest evangelists were always fruitful for additions to the "Little Flock". One such meeting described in the Friday, August 28, 1914 edition of THE PIEDMONT JOURNAL read like this: There never was any meeting held here that did any more general good in the community. This seems to be the opinion of everyone in connection with the big union tent meeting, which closed here last Sunday night after a duration of sixteen days. A total of eighty members as a result of this meeting has been already accomplished with a prospects of sufficient additional new members to finish out the hundred mark. The eighty new members were distributed as follows: Baptist, 48; Methodist, 27; Congregational Methodist 3; and Presbyterian, 2. On last Monday night forty-eight candidates were received into the Baptist church and were baptized by Rev. George D. Harris.
