From the pages of the "Little Flock"

The "Little Flock" did its part in the Southern Baptist Convention's first crusade under the banner of "A MILLION MORE IN '54" to promote Sunday School growth. Sunday School teachers and officers monthly training sessions and quarterly business meeting led by Superintendent Ed Parker and Rev. J. Holland Thomas placed much emphasis on good teaching, soul winning, and visitation. On one such meeting, past-pastor Rev. Ralph Longshore, who was with the Sunday School Board of the Southern Baptist Convention, Nashville urged the setting of worthwhile goals and good organization of the Sunday School Departments to promote growth. The fruits of their labor was an all-time "High Attendance Day" of 548 in Sunday School set in 1954. A truly remarkable feat that has not been matched!

Sign up for Christmas Assistance (12 yrs & under) at PBC will be Sept. 30th, Oct. 1st, 2nd & 3rd, 9:00-12:00 each day. Late appointments will be made on Oct. 3rd. only. Please pass this info to anyone who may need help.
