From the Pages of the "Little Flock"

After having been licensed to preach and ordained as a minister, Rev. George Dent Harris accepted a calling to the "Little Flock" in October, 1884 that was to begin five stints totaling 19 years of service characterized by much spiritual growth over a 25 year period. In 1899, the Piedmont INQUIRER Newspaper quoted: "To estimate his popularity with the church one may count the years between 1888 and 1899; nor do church lines bound his popularity as an able and eloquent expounder of the scripture He is second to none, and his every day life is greatly beloved."

To the many people in my church family who are there when I need help, I want to say a great big "Thank you" for loving me and always are there when I need you. Thanks be to God for First Baptist Church and its members.

Love in Christ,
Bert McCullough
