LOTTIE MOON
CHRISTMAS
OFFERING®

PFBC GOAL $5,000

Our Lottie Moon Offering will continue through January. If you use your regular tithing envelope you can mark “Lottie Moon” and the amount and it will be recorded as such.

Thank you Church for your continued support of the Lottie Moon Christmas offering and the Poinsettias. Thank you Mrs. Ann Wilkes. Our Sanctuary always looks so beautiful.

Notices

From the Pages of the “Little Flock”

The “Little Flock” always enjoyed other Christmas-time activities such as the “White Christmas Service” to gather food, toys, and clothes for the poor and needy of Piedmont (Deut. 15:11) the “Hanging of the Green”, and the placing of poinsettias in the Sanctuary in memory or honor of loved ones. Other memorable activities included the following: Wednesday night Caroling with hot apple cider fellowship; the “King’s Family Christmas service on the Sunday night before Christmas included songs, stories, testimonies, baptisms and candlelight worship as the members of the “Little Flock” let their light shine in the “First Family” Christmas tree; and lastly the quiet solemn occasion of a Vesper Candlelight service at dusk on Christmas Eve in the dimly-lit sanctuary with ones family gathered to hear the Christmas story, sing Christmas carols, and end in prayer truly set the mood for a wonderful Christmas celebration of the birth of our Savior! New Years Eve was a very sober occasion as the Lord’s Supper was administered.

Thank You & Prayer Requests
