Dear Church Family, Love of God and Church family has taken on a new depth of meaning since December 29, 2020. It is with deepest gratitude that I write these words. I have been reading and re-reading your cards, letters and emails. It's as though they are new each day. The prayer letters with so many names still bring tears of love and gratitude for each of you, my brothers and sisters. I wonder if we can ever realize the impact of our corporate prayer. I know I hear many comments of what they have done to reach hearts and minds. Thank you each beloved child of God, You are my family..."For love is of God." Next week on Dec. 29, 2021, it is a year since my accident. I am walking and gaining strength each day! You are in my thoughts and prayers! Sincerely,

Iris Poppell
