DRIVERS TO DELIVER

Thank you so much to the volunteers that set up, cleaned up, organized, folded and priced items for the Compass yard sale. We really appreciate those who donated and purchased items. We raised $2,600.00.

Also, thank you to all who helped with our Spring semester classes. Your donations also paid for our celebration meal for the ladies graduating the Compass Program. I am so glad to be a part of a church that shows the love and compassion of Christ to those in need.

*Blessings to all of you,
Pam*

SERMON NOTE

Living Above the Chaos

Titus Sermon Series
Impacting the Chaos
Titus 3:1-8

I. Introduction

- A. Paul gives Titus three areas of responsibility for every local church.
- 1. The church is to be an orderly church.
 - 2. The church should emphasize the teaching of sound doctrine.
 - 3. The church should be ready for every good work.

II. Body

- A. Our obligation to those outside the church. (vv. 1-2)
- 1. Follow the rule of authority unless it will cause disobedience to the Word of God. (Romans 13:1)
 - 2. We are to show all manner of good to all sorts of people. (Romans 12:18)
- B. Our gospel transformation. (vv. 3-7)
- 1. Every life is characterized by sin before salvation. (Romans 5:10-11)
 - 2. Our lives are changed because of the regeneration and and renewal of the Holy Spirit.
 - 3. Our justification by faith makes us heirs to the most valuable possession of all; eternal life. (Romans 6:23)
- C. Our call to do good works. (v. 8)
- 1. One of the reasons we are “born again” is to glorify God through good works. (John 15:5)

D. Conclusion

- 1. Remind yourself daily to devote yourself to good works.
