Piedmont First Baptist,

Thank you so much for all your prayers over the past 3 yrs. Mom would always let us know when she received cards, calls or texts from any of you. She thought so much of you! She was very grateful as we are too! Continue to keep us in your prayers.

Amanda, Kristi and Woodie Cheatwood

SERMON NOTES

Communion

1 Corinthians 11:23-34

Today, we can leave some useless things at the Lord's table:

We Can Leave All Of Our Guilt

We Can Leave All Of Our Grudges

We Can Leave All Of Our Bitterness

We Can Leave All Of Our Burdens

“The Lord's table is like a great bridge spanning the entire interval of the Church's history on earth. One end of it rests on the shame of the cross, the other is planted in the glory of the Kingdom. This feast sustains a threefold relationship to the Christian.

It is a reminder of our past justification.

It is a reminder of our present sustenance in the new life.

It is the pledge of our future blessedness and glory.”
