CALLING OUT THE CALLED

Isaiah 6:1-8

"Then I heard the voice of the Lord saying, 'Whom shall I send, and who will go for us?' And I said, 'Here I am. Send me!'" — Isaiah 6:8

I. God Still Calls

God has always initiated the call (Isaiah, Moses, Jeremiah, Paul).

The same God is calling today—His mission hasn't changed.

The shortage of pastors is not due to God's silence, but perhaps our neglect to proclaim the call.

II. The Call is Undeniable and Unforgettable

Lutzer: "When God calls a man, He doesn't do so casually."

Testimonies show how deeply God works in a soul.

Many resist at first—Moses, Jeremiah, Jonah—but God pursues.

III. The Church Must Call Out the Called

Paul tells Timothy to "fan into flame the gift of God" (2 Tim 1:6).

Parents, pastors, and churches should affirm, nurture, and celebrate the call.

Are we creating space for young men and women to hear from God?

IV. What's Your Response?

Has God called you to ministry? Are you listening?

Are you affirming the call in others? Are you praying?

Will you be a voice that calls out the called?
